In Memory of

Sing we now softly, and dreams let us weave him!
Wind him in slumber and there let us leave him
The wanderer sleepeth. Now soft be his pillow!
Lullaby! Lullaby! Alder and Willow!
Sigh no more Pine, till the wind of the morn!
Fall Moon! Dark be the land!
Hush! Hush! Oak, Ash, and Thorn!
Hushed be all water, till dawn is at hand!

Serious sport has nothing to do with fair play. It is bound up with hatred, jealousy, boastfulness, disregard of all rules and sadistic pleasure in witnessing violence; in other words it is war minus the shooting.

MV girls get kick from soccer win vs. Nauset

CAPE COD TIMES

OAK BLUFFS – Ila Briggs scored twice yesterday leading Martha's Vineyard to its first victory over Nauset in seven years, 4-2.

"This is a big win for us," Martha's Vineyard coach Jay Schofield said. "Wins for us against Nauset come rarely."

The Vineyarders improve to 6-3-2, while Nauset drops to 3-4-1.

Martha's Vineyard took a 2-0 lead into the half on the strength of goals by Jess Pisano, who tallied on a breakaway, and Briggs, who converted a pass from Kristy Lampron.

Nauset made the score 2-1 at the beginning of the second half when Gretchen Peterson was set up by Hanna Berry.

But Lampron scored at the 33-minute mark off a corner kick, and Briggs notched her second of the day from Virginia Clark to keep the Vineyarders in control.

Vineyard goalie Kara Shemeth made several acrobatic saves, and Justine Shemeth had a solid defensive game in front of her sister. Siobhan Healy and Melissa Corelli also played well for the Vineyard, which plays at Harwich Monday.

MEN'S BASEBALL

MV improves to 4-9 overall, 3-4 in the Cape & Islands League while Nauset drops to 3-6 and 3-3.

The Vineyarders took advantage of a two-base error in the third to get their first two runs. Andrew Phillips reached on the miscue and scored on a Ben Connelly RBI single to center. Connelly then stole second, and after a fly out, scored on a single by Tony Jackson.

In the fifth, Connelly reached on a two-base error and came around on a single by Ryan Ruley who then scored on a single by Jackson. Nicholas Hoehn followed with a triple to left-center.

Hoehn was the complete-game winner for MV. He allowed two unearned runs, six hits and just one walk while striking out three.

OAK BLUFFS - Ryan Ruley gave up eight hits and struck out 10 and Tony Jackson was 5-for-5 with two RBIs as Martha's Vineyard cruised to a 20-4 win over Provincetown in a windy game on the island.

The Vineyard improves to 3-8, 2-3 in the Cape and Islands League. Provincetown falls to 2-5, 0-5 in the C & I.

The two teams combined for 24 hits as the wind blew many popups into singles and doubles. Jackson collected his first hit in the bottom of the first, a two-run single to put the Vineyarders up 4-0. Ben Connelly added a deep, two-run homer to right-center in the five-run fourth.

Ruley pitched the entire game, walking three batters, but also helped himself at the plate going 2-for-3 with three RBIs. Brad Rothwell pitched in with three hits for the winners.

Two grand slam home runs, the first by Melanie Flanders, the second by Lindsay Lehman, powered the M.V. softball team's offense at Nantucket, Friday. But the Whalers collected 11 hits, including a three run blast in the bottom of the final (seventh) inning to pull off a 15-14 victory, and claim their first Cape and Islands championship in a girls sports with a 6-2 league record, 15-4 overall.

The Vineyarders are 8-11 overall, 6-3 in C&I.

Liz Rothwell scattered seven hits, fanned five, walked one and held Provincetown to a single run to notch the Vineyard's third Cape and Islands win, Saturday. They are undefeated in league play (5-0), 6-6 overall.

Melanie Flanders drove in two of the Vineyard's four first inning runs. Later, Anna Oliveira's monstrous blow over the left field fence produced two more. Final: M.V. 7, P-town 1.

Thursday, the Vineyarders doubled Nantucket's score to win on Whaling grounds, 10-5. Scoring five runs in the top of the first inning, the Purple led from the get-go. Anna Oliveira paced the offense with three hits.

The MV Girls' Varsity Softball defeated the Sacred Heart Saints 5-0. The Vineyarders played a solid defensive game behind the shutout pitching of senior LIZ ROTHWELL. LIZ posted her first shutout of the season with a seven hit performance. Offensively JONA AGNOLI knocked in 2 runs and AMY GALLIGAN had 1 RBI.

Coach Ned Fennessy

Varsity Singles: Lars Peterson, Mark Smadbeck, Lou Smadbeck

Varsity Doubles: Luke Washbrook, Alex Reynolds, Chris Reinhardsen, Paul Hammond, Myron Maynard

Boys Tennis

Martha's Vineyard's reigning Cape & Islands League champion boys tennis team was decimated by graduation, losing Bruce Gray and Brian Yennie at first and second singles, and doubles players Rob Dickson, Will Barlett, and Charlie Bailow. Only Lou Smadbeck and Luke Washbrook remain of the the team that won 13 matches and lost one. (The only loss was to persistent powerhouse Nauset, with whom the Vineyard swapped wins in their home and home series.)

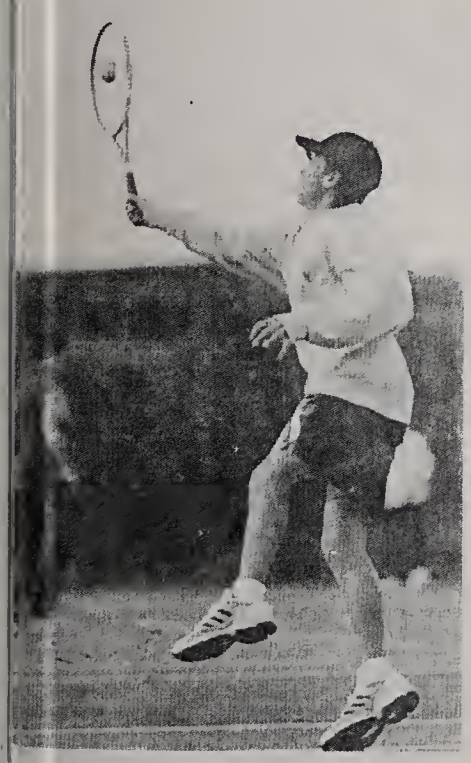
But Coach Ned Fennessey is a master at developing tennis talent, and odds makers would be well advised to hesitate before writing off this year's Purple racketeers.

The coach is impressed with the play of freshmen Mark Smadbeck and Paul Hammond and expects help from Danish exchange student Lars Petersen and last year's JV players Myron Maynard, Chris Reinhardsen, Alex Reynolds, and Eli Carroll. Also vying for places on the team are Chris Billotto, Steve Dunayer, Paul McAllister, and Tim Moriarty.



Seniors

Memories: L'il Peach, parties at Coach's, post-match cookies and Powerade, long days @ New Seabury, Uno, Cape & Islands tourney @ Nauset, Mookie's suspension, Nancy Lee, long matches into the evening, our great opponents, our even better teammates, and the countless laughs with Coach.

Where will we be?

When we first came into this square building, most of which was still under construction, we thought the school looked pretty big. There were new things for us all to do, and we knew we'd have to go through some pretty troubling times before we would ever hear that mystical word, graduate. Our class has taken the brunt of the changes in the school and has taken it well.

We had to go through construction during our freshman year which made things a lot harder. Remember those tests we had to take when we could hear some bulldozer driving around right outside the window? Remember trying to open our lockers while we heard some huge crash from somewhere in that new building? We had to listen to a whole lot of that our first year.

Then, after a vacation, we were in. The new building had cleaner tables and gas tanks on the science lab areas. Suddenly our school looked like a real high school from TV. Everyone got new lockers and new homeroom teachers, and it all seemed different.

Even now, our final year, things are just finally wrapping up. The curtains in the Performing Arts Center are finally up and during February we saw a musical with all the effects, "Anything Goes." We had to wait four years to see it, but we did.

Block scheduling caused its share of groans. No longer were forty minute classes things to dislike. Now we had classes for almost and hour and a half. True, the classes were now every other day, but who really likes an hour and a half of math?

Our senior years were filled with victory and loss. Our class has produced some fantastic sports teams and our scores prove it. Our football team never lost a game. Our soccer team also did well. Our basketball and hockey teams are cleaning house and soon our spring sports will do well, also. Our class has been bringing home trophies, whether it be from states or from Nantucket.

We also learned about loss this final year. In the early hours of New Year's Eve, Ryan Mone was killed in a car accident. Over the next few days people heard a lot of rumors and gossip on the incident but it wasn't until the police came to an assembly that we heard the facts. We all lost a classmate and some lost a very close friend, and I doubt that any of us will ever forget.

So, as you look over the next few pages, try to remember things that brought you joy, things that made you cry, and things that made you happy to just be alive. It was a long four years but they were also fun. Remember them fondly.

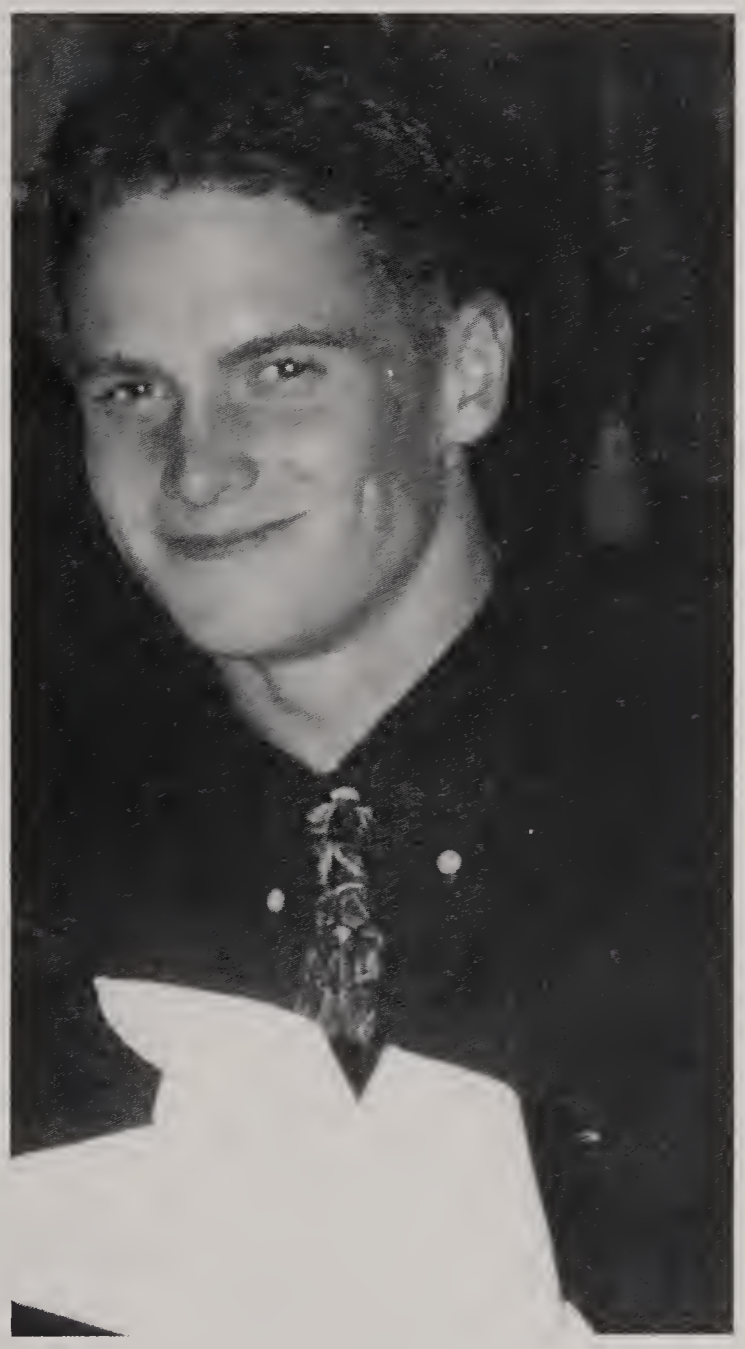
In Memory Of



Outrageous Fortune

for Ryan Mone

I knew him briefly. First, as a Freshman, goofing off with his awkward peers in gym.
During his Sophomore year, he reminded me of one of Mark Twain's mischievous boys caught white-washing picket fences in the classroom. But something happened in his Junior year; a sea change occurred.
He altered course, buckled down,
and cracked open the books. At the beginning of his Senior year, his radiant smile lit up the world around him. I think he saw the bright future.
Then the crash near the Wooden Tent ended it.
The parking lot at the high school is darker,
emptier now.
I miss Ryan's generous smile.

"I thought I would sail about a little and see the watery part of the world. It is a way I have of driving off the spleen and regulating the circulation. Whenever I find myself growing grim about the mouth; whenever it is a damp, drizzly November in my soul; whenever I find myself involuntarily pausing before coffin warehouses, and bringing up the rear of every funeral I meet; and especially whenever my hypos get such an upper hand of me, that it requires a strong moral principle to prevent me from deliberately stepping into the street, and methodically knocking people's hats off —then, I account it high time to get to sea as soon as I can."

POEM FOR MY YEARBOOK
Twenty years from now
what I'll remember most will be the teachers
in Chapter 1 &
Isaque
who helped me learn
a new language,
so I could go on to medical school
to become a doctor
and deliver children in Brazil.

Life
Life is a miracle that will learn from time and the lessons you experience.
As time goes on your life is changed by more lessons.
Sometimes it hurts, sometimes it's funny, and it's hard to face these obstacles and we get lost not knowing what to think or say.
It is a game of losses and gains but with life we cry and laugh, feel and dream.
We feel pain but above everything we always feel love.

The last words of the Cat in the Hat

The sun did not shine. It was too wet to play. So we sat in the house all that cold, cold, wet day." A bald man sings me the words of the Cat in the Hat, that entertain me through my waking hours playing house, secretary, school, whatever the game of the day, or the playmate of the day.
But at night laying down, reading the words of magic "so, so, so," said the cat in the hat. Wide eyed and young my ears tingled when the dream maker put me down to sleep, comprehending all the words the amazing cat whispered to me. Memorizing his words, knowing all his movements, he watched me as I threw fits hitting, kicking, screaming. He make me write, told me that I was beautiful when the world seemed to be crashing down upon my head. But when this was happening he wasn't wearing a hat, he wasn't in a book,he didn't travel from house to house, he was in my house always. The cat became the person reading me the Cat in the Hat. He watched me as I moved through life wanting to be a fashion designer, a teacher, a writer, saying the whole time, "I knew you were going to act.' And now he sits wrapped up in a 60 page book, that I no longer read but just look at. But I suppose the Cat transformed into the man reading me to sleep.
"'That was that.' said the Cat in the Hat and then he was gone with a tip of his hat."

I never thought I'd be at this point in my life. I'm kind of lost for words. But in the years to come, I'll want to look back and remember what was important to me. To start: \My loves: My beautiful loving strong mother & best friend. My artistic large - hearted loving father. (To my parents I owe everything.) My awesome big brothers Tom, Dan, Sam and Steve. My best and only beautiful blond bomb shell sister Jen (nif.) and my greatest, handsome intelligent bright futured brother Seth, and my little Martha.
Hate: controlling, abusive A.S.H men
Hope: To look back knowing everything I went through was all worth it. And I took each step carefully and correctly.

Rashly,
And prais'd be rashness for it, —let us know,
Our indiscretion sometimes serves us well,
When our deep plots do fail: and that should teach us
There's a divinity that shapes our ends,
Rough-hew them how we will.

I've made me a moon-catchin' net
And I'm goin' huntin' tonight,
I'll run along swingin' it over my head
And grab for the big ball of light.
So tomorrow just look at the sky,
And if there's no moon you can bet
I've found what I sought and I finally caught
The moon in my moon-catchin' net.
But if the moon's still shinin' there
Look close underneath and you'll get
A clear look at me in the sky swingin' free
With a star in my moon-catchin' net.

I remember so much of the past four years- obsessions, conspiracies, hatred, loves, laughs, tears, music, things I never found the courage to do the mistakes, all the good times and the bad ones too. My family- I appreciate all you have done for me, I love you. My friends- Thank you for being there, the advice (even if I didn't take it) and most of all the laughs.

"...there isn't much time for maybes, even good-byes dust settles, the archwelders come out and reconstruct the obvious and we are left holding the blur...god bless us all for what we think and feel is all we really have...no limit i ever knew really matters, ...there are no tomorrows, only blessed todays... once it's gone there is no going back and it's never the same. wave to the magic balloons with your names attatched...circling the precious earth in search of a friend, in search of another. i hope you all find what you need in whatever hole you peer down, whatever cloud you peer behind...this year is the most joyous and happy, mournful and sad year i have known." -bc

TO THE CLASS OF 1998

I hold you all in high esteem and have taken great pleasure in watching you all grow up. From the hours of enjoyment you have given in football, track, music, and all the other wonderful events, I have taken many grand memories with me, and they shall keep me warm and smiling for decades to come. May they do the same for you. Keep the faith!!!

With great respect and affection, I remain,

It has been a pleasure working with every member of the Yearbook Staff, as well as everyone else who became involved. Leslie Look and the M.V. Times lent us some fabulous pictures and it couldn't have been done without them. As for Mrs. Mott and Mrs. Ryan, they were our saviors when it came to making our deadlines, and that is why we believe this is the best yearbook ever. It was a terrific year filled with fun and pizza parties, as well as conflicts and decisions. Thank you very much for your hard work and support.
